Weekly Picks From the Band

Book of the Week

Rabbit, Run is a novel by John Updike, and depicts five months in the life of a 26-year-old former high school basketball player named Harry 'Rabbit' Angstrom, and his attempts to escape the constraints of his life. It spawned several sequels, including Rabbit Redux, Rabbit Is Rich and Rabbit At Rest, as well as a related 2001 novella, Rabbit Remembered.

Movie of the Week

12 Angry Men is a 1957 American drama film adapted from a teleplay of the same name by Reginald Rose. Directed by Sidney Lumet, the film tells the story of a jury made up of 12 men as they deliberate the guilt or innocence of a defendant on the basis of reasonable doubt. The film is notable for its almost exclusive use of one set: the entire movie takes place in the jury room. The total time spent outside of the jury room is eight minutes, out of the full 96 minutes of the movie.

Album of the Week

OK Computer is the third studio album by English alternative rock band Radiohead. Although most of the music is dominated by guitar, OK Computer's expansive sound and wide range of influences set it apart from many of the Britpop and alternative rock bands popular at the time, and it laid the groundwork for Radiohead's later, more experimental work.

Restaurant of the Week

Not many cafés can claim to be amongst the very best coffee makers in Melbourne, if not Australia but CNF can! Their customers love good food, wine and coffee and CNF delivers all these to strictly maintained high standards.
